Cannot call and talk direct

Qualifications:

Must possess a class A Commercial Driver's License (CDL) with double/triple and hazardous materials endorsement
Must possess one (1) year experience within most recent three (3) years or successful completion of FedEx Freight Driver Development Course.

Must search for a job opening titled "Drivers Apprentice". The program primarily targets internal candidates (ie. dock workers) that want to advance so it is a class that starts from square one but our students would be highly regarded for the job because they would already have license and training. Upon completion they would be promoted to a full time driver.
