

Orange Ridge-Bullock Twelve Words to FCAT Success

Trace:

List steps from beginning to end.

Analyze:

Break it apart. Think about it.

Infer:

Look for clues. What does it mean?

Evaluate:

You be the judge. Tell the good and the bad.

Formulate:

Put it together. Create.

Describe:

Tell all about it. Use your senses. Tell who, what, when, where, why, and how.

Support:

Give reasons why. Give details or examples. Back it up!

Explain:

Tell how. Tell who, what, when, where, and why.

Summarize:

Tell it in a few sentences. Put it into your own words.

Compare:

How are they alike? Tell all the ways they are the same.

Contrast:

How are they different? Tell all the ways they are different.

Predict:

What do you think will happen next? Guess the outcome.

Place on your refrigerator!

